

Clarification on Dictator Su Kyi Government ban my Facebook activities on Myanmar

To: International Communities and All Myanmar Citizen

My Name is Aung San U. The eldest son of General Aung San, Father of the Nation of modern-day Myanmar.

Before I open my Facebook account I contact a few Media (include BBC Burma) for publishing my article, no one dared to help me publish articles because they were afraid of being punished by dictator Su Kyi Government. In 29 Feb 2020 Myanmar Ludu media published a video interview with me was warned by dictator Su Kyi Government not to publish again. After that I decided to open my own face book account for giving education with Myanmar Citizen.

1. My Facebook Page (Life with Values) Was register on 11 mar 2020.

www.facebook.com/baganu77 and www.facebook.com/lifewithvalues was forced to ban by dictator Su Kyi Government.

3. 27 Jul 2020 My page followers

4. 31 Jul 2020 My page quality report and dictator Su Kyi Government and Facebook Management team ban my Facebook account.

The screenshot shows the Facebook page management interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with icons for home, friends, video, marketplace, and profile. The profile icon is labeled 'Bagan'. Below the navigation bar, a red banner displays a warning: 'Page has been unpublished'. The main content area is titled 'Page quality' and features a green checkmark icon with the text 'Your Page has no restrictions or violations'. To the right, there is a section for 'Facebook Community Standards' with a 'Learn More' button. Below the main message, there is a feedback prompt: 'Was this information helpful?' with 'Yes' and 'No' buttons. On the left side, a 'Manage Page' sidebar lists various tools: Inbox (7 new messages and 21 new comments), Notifications (1 new), Insights, Publishing Tools, Ad Centre, Page quality (selected), Edit Page Info, and Settings. A 'Promote' button is located at the bottom of the sidebar.

5. 7 Aug 2020 Myanmar Government announced that My Facebook page “Life with Value” was forced to close due to false information.
